David Bokser
7554 Norton Ave Apt 9
West Hollywood, CA 90046
(912) 660-1382
me@davidbokser.com
http://www.davidbokser.com

Objective
To secure a position as a 3D Character Animator in a company that strives for artistic excellence.

Education

2000 – 2004 B.F.A. Computer Art, Savannah College of Art and Design with a minor in Animation
Dean's List - GPA 3.87/4.0
Savannah, GA

Professional Experience

March 2005 – Current — Freelance Character Animator and Rigger – Extra Large Technologies, Inc.
Responsibilities:
Rigged and animated characters for use in DVD promotional material for Mattel project, and Rigging, Pipeline Tool MEL Scripting, and Character Animation for Interactive Bratz project for MGAE
Los Angeles, CA

October 2004 – January 2005 — Character Animator – Method Games
Responsibilities:
Animated a variety of character action cycles for use in the game engine on unannounced PSP game. Specialized in quadruped animation.
Burbank, CA

June 2004 – September 2004 — Character Animator – Genesis Orlando
Responsibilities:
Animated a variety of characters on major and minor scenes for animated feature film Tugger: The Little Jeep 4x4 Who Wanted to Fly.
Orlando, FL

June 2003 – August 2003 — Teacher's Assistant, Character Animation I - Savannah College of Art and Design
Responsibilities:
Assisted professor in administering and creating lectures and tutorials
Savannah, GA

2002 – June 2004 — Video Editor, Compositor, 3D Modeler – BokserFilms
Projects:
Motion graphics and editing for various television commercials
New York, NY

Awards and Screenings

May 2005	Short film "Old Man and the Fish" nominated for a Student Academy Award from the Academy of Motion Picture Arts and Sciences
May 2005	Short film "Old Man and the Fish" screened at Cannes Short Film Corner Market; Festival de Cannes
April 2005	Short film "Old Man and the Fish" screened at SBDVFestival in Long Island, NY
April 2005	Short film "Old Man and the Fish" published on ANIMEX 2005 DVD
March 2005	Short film "Old Man and the Fish" received Juror's Choice Award from the 9th Annual Arizona State University Art Museum Short Film and Video Festival
March 2005	Short film "Old Man and the Fish" awarded 2nd place in the Non-Traditional Animation category from the 26th Annual Academy of Television Arts and Sciences Foundation College Awards.
February 2005	Short film "Old Man and the Fish" screened at Roll Yr' Own Festival in Atlanta, GA
January 2005	Short film "Old Man and the Fish" screened on DVD by ANIMEX Student Animation Festival
November 2004	Short film "Old Man and the Fish" received Grand Prize in Digital Cinema award from the Digital Art Awards 2004 in Tokyo, Japan.
October 2004	Short film "Old Man and the Fish" screened at Savannah Film and Video Festival in Savannah, GA
October 2004	Short film "Old Man and the Fish" screened at ION International Film Festival in Los Angeles, CA
September 2004	Short film "Old Man and the Fish" screened at China International Cartoon and Digital Awards in Changzhou, China
January 2004	ANIMEX Student Animation Festival Finalist with short film "Traffik"
January 2004	Short film "Traffik" screened at Future Film Festival in Bologna, Italy
July 2003	Short film "Traffik" screened at SIGGRAPH Animation Festival 2003

Publications

January 2005	Short film "Old Man and the Fish" featured in the Portfolio section of Computer Graphics World
October 2004	Article about short film "Old Man and the Fish" written in Savannah District Paper Issue #178
July 2003	Featured in Hewlett Packard advertisement about the students in SIGGRAPH. Advertisement displayed in Millimeter Magazine and Video Systems Magazine.
August 2003	Featured in VFXWorld.com article, Rick Baumgartner, "Times Have Changed, Right?!"